COLUMBIA HEIGHTS. A Protest Last Night Regarding the

President M. A. Ballinger presided at the regular meeting of the Columbia Heights Citizens' Association, held last evening in St. Stephen's Hall, and the association took steps to prevent further dumping of refuse in the locality. The matter of the dumps in the vicinity was thoroughly discussed, it being the sentiment of the meeting that the owners of the land on which they are located should be vigorously prosecuted if they fail to prevent the dumping of the objectionable matter, no matter who they are. A resolution was adopted protesting against the dump on Sherman avenue, and requesting the president of the association to ap-point a committee to call upon the author-ities and request them to prevent the nuisance. The chair named the following as the committee: C. M. Campbell, chairman; C. S. Bundy, J. W. Fowler, M. F. O'Donoghue, Charles B. Tanner, H. E. Gasch and E. G. Jefferies. The employment of counsel to prosecute violators of the law, if it became necessary, was also adopted became necessary, was also adopted.

The authorities were also requested to repair the sidewalks in the locality and irain the vacant lots. Three new members were elected, Dr. Edward M. Hasbrouke, Mr. Charles L. Hughes and Mr. Melville Lindsay.

Merry Gathering of Graduates Las Evening. The class of '96 of the Business High School gathered last evening to do honor to Mr. E. W. Duvall of South Carolina. member of the class, who is visiting the city for the inauguration. The large crowd present testified to his popularity. The address of welcome was made by President Kelly, and Mr. Duvall responded with one of his characteristic speeches. The High School building, where the merry throng School building, where the merry throng met, was tastefully decorated. Large paims lined the hallways, while flowers were strewn about in great profusion.

The Glee Ciub, together with several young ladles, sang many delightful sciections, after which an adjournment was made to the drill hall, where refreshments were served, the orchestra meanwhile dispensing the latest popular airs. Dancing was next in order, and the evening was closed by all present joining in an old-fashiened Virginia reel.

All of It for Ten Cents. threes of The Evening Star for March A WHITE HOUSE DINNER.

President Entertains the Presi-

The dinner given to Major McKinley at the White House last night had a tinge of sadness to the President-elect. Mrs. McKinley was not able to accompany him to their future official home. The trip from Canton had been too much for her, and she was taken suddenly ill and forced

Mrs. Cleveland was very much pained to learn of Mrs. McKinley's sickness and at once sent a basket of beautiful flowers and a note of condolence to the Ebbitt

Major McKinley was escorted to the White House by Mr. J. Addison Porter, who is to be his secretary. He reached the Executive Mansion at 7:45 o'clock and was shown to the red parlor. Dinner was served immediately after his arrival. President Cleveland managed to appear notwithstanding his rheumatism.

The dinner was served in the private-dining room and was not elaborate in its furnishings. The conversation was confined chiefly to hints on how best to do things in the White House. It was nearly 10 o'clock when the President-elect left, and he was escorted to the Ebbitt House by Chief Usher Capt. Dubois.

RESTRICTING CIGARETTE SALES.

Dealers in Chicago Must Have an An nual License.

The Chicago city council, by a unanimous vote, has passed an ordinance requiring every dealer in cigarettes to pay an annual license of $100 to the city treasury. The law passed says that the cigarette cannot be sold within 200 feet of a school house. All sold by licensed dealers must have been inspected by the commissioner of health and received his approval as to their purity. No cigarette can be sold which contains opium, morphine, gympsum or other poisonous matter. jects the dealer to a fine of $50 to $200 for each offense and $25 for each day of the violation of the law.

The number of packages sent to Chicago annually aproximate 20,000,000. A small dealer must sell 20,000 packages before he can earn what he has paid out for his license. The downtown dealers in the paper sticks say they will not feel the expense of the license much, but in the suburbs the effect of the ordinance will be to practically prohibit the sale.

effect of the ordinance will be to practically prehibit the sale.

Mayor Swift will sign the ordinance, which will go into effect immediately. The women's clubs have taken a great interest in the cigarette ordinance, because it was at least a step in the direction of stopping the use of tobacco by schoolboys.

Mrs. Pennoyer L. Sherman, vice president of the Chicago Woman's Club, and ex-chairman of the reform committee, says:

"While the ordinance will not stop the sale of cigarettes, its general effect will be good in several ways. It will close out the small dealers and thus lessen the temptation to the boys."
